

H&S POLICY

Spline Gauges recognises that clear, positive and visible leadership is core to the effective management, of Health and Safety and is essential in maintain a positive Health and Safety culture throughout the organisation. As such Spline Gauges is committed to:

Our Employees and Others

Ensuring Health, Safety and welfare of our employees, and the Health and Safety of other persons, whom may be affected by our activities.

Legal and Other Requirements

Complying with all relevant regulations and requirements, operating in accordance with both government and industry codes of practise and guidance appropriate to our activities.

Management of Risk

Assessing and managing the risks associated with our activities to ensure a high level of protection for our employees, contractors, customers, the public.

Policies and Documentation

Document policies and procedures enable Spline Gauges to control our Health and Safety risks and improve our Health and Safety performance.

Provision of Information

Providing relevant Health and Safety information to contractors, other site visitors, customer, and statutory bodies.

Training

Providing all employees with information, instruction and training aimed at ensuring that they understand their responsibilities and their contribution towards the achievement of the Health and Safety objectives.

Emergency Response

Establishing and maintain appropriate Health and Safety response system.

Continual Improvement

Achieving continual improvement in the Health and Safety performance.

Objectives and Targets

Establishing and reviewing targets and objectives within the company's procedures to ensure Health and Safety culture.

Communication

Consulting with our employees and ensure worker participation on issues relating to Health and Safety.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to be 'IA' or similar initials.

Ian Garrett – Managing Director
March 2023

The business aims to ensure that all its employees are engaged in the delivery of this policy.
The business will provide resources necessary to fulfil these policy requirements.